

Volunteer Assignment Descriptions

Guides – People serving as guides will be assigned to a specified number of brass players 5 – 10. They will lead buglers through the process and take them to their performance locations along the route. Requirements – Ability to maintain control and accountability of 5 – 10 people.

Brass Players – Any person playing a brass instrument. Requirement -Ability to play Taps on a brass instrument. No Digital bugles

Sign-in crew – These people document the brass players as they arrive on the day of the event. Also perform data entry. Requirements - Moderate understanding of data entry.

Food service – Handle all aspects of serving. Requirements – Ability to handle crowds and familiarity with safe food handling.

Logistics – Responsible for pre-marking the route and placement of the guides. Issuing souvenirs, handle road marking, parking, safety. Requirements - Multi-tasking and detail oriented.

Brass Player Coordinators – Responsible for recruiting brass players and providing information regarding instrumentation, written music, and starting notes. Also responsible for identify a conductor if massing is to be performed. Requirements - Moderate music background

Music Qualifier – Every brass player will have to demonstrate their ability to play Taps. The music qualifier will audition the buglers to make sure they can Taps before they can proceed to registration. The music qualifier will also make that the bugler is starting on the correct note. Requirements - A moderate music background

Trainer – This person will train the brass players in the process of transferring the bugle call from one bugler to the next. Requirements - Understanding of the process and group training background.